

UNMONITORED TELEPHONE AGREEMENT FOR ATTORNEYS FEDERAL DETENTION CENTER SEATAC

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Purpose

Federal Detention Center SeaTac has established an unmonitored attorney-client telephone for pretrial inmates. The telephone system permits pretrial inmates to contact attorneys directly on an unmonitored telephone without submitting a request to unit team staff.

Subject of Telephone Calls

Calls made to approved numbers on the unmonitored attorney telephone must only involve the inmate's pending criminal matter(s).

Authorized Persons

The telephone calls are restricted to attorney-client calls only. Inmates may not speak with any other person, including family members, friends, or associates. Interpreters may be used when needed, as long as the interpreters is not a relative, friend or associate of the inmate.

Three-way Calls

Three-way calls are strictly prohibited. At no time may an inmate be transferred or forwarded to another telephone number.

Violations

An attorney wishing to place her/his number on the approved list is for the unmonitored phone must sign this agreement and strictly adhere to the terms and conditions for use of this telephone. Violations of any provision of this agreement will result in removal of the attorney's telephone number from the approved telephone list. Furthermore, the participating inmate may receive an incident report, and possible disciplinary sanctions.

The undersigned agrees to inform all necessary staff members, and other appropriate persons of the terms and conditions related to unmonitored inmate telephone calls from FDC SeaTac. The undersigned takes full responsibility for the actions of her/his staff, and others who may respond to, or are otherwise involved with, unmonitored calls to his/her telephone number from FDC SeaTac.

I understand and agree to the terms and conditions set forth above.
